

WORDS at PLAY

a neighborhood poetry wall

---

HISTORY OF BUILDING

John A. Clark established Clark Art in 1923 as a picture framing business. After WWII, the next generation, Doris Clark Walker and Owen Walker Jr. began offering contemporary traditional oil paintings and prints. In the 1970s, the third generation, Owen Walker III, added antique oil and watercolor paintings, as well as fine art antique prints. But in Mr. Walker's words in 2011: "After 88 years of serving our friends – it is time to retire."

---

THANK YOU to Charles Long, current owner of the building, for generously allowing GSNC to use this space as a mirror for the character and diversity of the Glenwood South neighborhood.

---

THANK YOU also to chalkboard artist, Rebekah Zabarsky (bexproductions.com) for designing the header, and Julianne Gonski (juliannegonski.com) for her services as graphic designer.

---

PLEASE SEND YOUR FAVORITE POETRY OR QUOTES

to glenwoodsouth@downtownraleigh.org.

Printed by Duncan-Parnell